DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 1, 3-5, 7-12, 16-22, 24, and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by either Sharkey et al (6,073,051) or Ashley et al (6,258,086). Applicant's attention is directed to column 21, lines 4-9 and lines 16-20 of Sharkey et al and column 7, lines 52-55 and column 8, lines 12-24 of Ashley et al. The various structural features are disclosed throughout the disclosures of the references.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Sharkey et al (6,073,051) or Ashley et al (6,258,086). The particular voltage range would have been obvious to select to optimize performance of the methodology.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed January 21, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Sharkey et al discloses that tissue that forms in the wall of the disc is ablated at column 4, lines 4-9. Ashley et al discloses that limited ablation does occur in the nucleus at column 7, lines 52-55. The claims broadly recite that tissue and disc tissue are ablated. Accordingly, the disclosures of the references clearly read upon such limitations. Further, the placement of the active electrodes of the references is within the disc and clearly within the “vicinity” of the herniation in light of the breadth of such a limitation. Further, the particular voltage would have been necessary to accomplish the ablations disclosed by the references.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2, 6, 13-15, and 25-27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed; and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
